Jones Twirls No-Hit Game For National Loop Champs

Robbie Jones waited until the final regular game of the Torrance National League season before pulling his rabbit out of the hat. Jones threw a no-hitter the past week as the Cardinals took a 5-0 triumph over the Cubs and clinched the league championship.

Almost a magician on the mound, Jones struck out nine batters and missed a perfect game by only one batter as he issued one free pass. Terry Waters suffered the defeat although he threw five-hit ball, struck out 11 and walked two.

Jones, Jim Fox and Randy Bishop drove in runs for the Cardinals and the other two runs crossed the dish on wild pitches.

JONES ENJOYED a tremendous closing week with the Cardinals as he played a vital role on the mound in all three of the team's games.

When the Cards took a 7-0 victory over the Braves, it was Jones who shared the pitching limelight with Jim Fox as the two combined on a one-hitter. Fox and Jones fanned 11 and walked 1.

THE PAIR of Mark Marquard and Jim Yates took the loss as they struck out 13 opponents, gave up 8 hits and walked 7.

The power-happy Cards received home runs from Daren Vom Stieg, Pete Lorenzo, and Malcolm Keenan to blitz the Braves. Vom Stieg's blast came with two men aboard.

EARLIER, the Braves received a four-hit mound effort by Steve Shaw to take a 4-3 decision from the Cardinals and defeat Jones and Fox, who allowed five hits, walked two and struck out nine.

Shaw fanned five Cardinals and walked four. Allen Pruitt bashed a third-inning homer for the Braves while Steve Buckman also drove in a run. Pete Lorenzo homered for the Cards and Randy Bishop collected an RBI.

THE ANGELES suffered a poor week, winning one game and dropping two. The Yankees took a 12-6 win over the Cherubs and then repeated, 8-7.

In the first game, Bob Salas and Phil Roeder pitched with Don Gross hitting a home run and Tim Venable, Bob Prushnok and Steve Huston driving in runs for the winners. For the Angels, Craig Dietlin and Chuck O'Brien bashed home runs while Bruce Johnson, Bill Souza and Rich Peterson chipped in with RBIs.

IN THE second contest, Art Caylor and Phil Roeder combined for the victory in a seven-inning contest. Chuck O'Brien homered for the Angels and Keith Glick drove in a run.

DFG Records 815 Fishing Violations

Angling without a license, with 418 cases prosecuted, accounted for over 50 per cent of all fish and game violations in Southern California and the Inyo-Mono area during the month of June, the Department of Fish and Game reports.

Total violations for the month added up to 815, a considerable increase over the 617 recorded for June of 1962. The offenders paid $16,888.50 in fines levied by the courts and served 11 days in jail.

Angling with more than one rod was the second most numerous offense in June, with 122 court cases entered into the record. Other frequent violations, listed by type and number of cases prosecuted, were: trout, and no inland stamp, 48 each; loaded gun in car, 23; ocean sportfish, 22; resident small game, 20; litter, 18; clams and shellfish, 17; no Colorado River use stamp, 14; commercial fish, 13; doves, 7; hunting without a license, 5; pollution, 3; and commercial lobster, 2.
